

Bonny Bunch of Roses O

1. By the dan-gers of the o - - cean one mor-ning in the month of June A [ram - bling] war - bling song - - ster Their char-ming notes so sweet did tune 'Twas there I spied a fe - - male See-ming - ly in grief and woe A con - ver - sing with young Buo - na-parte Con - cer - ning the bunch of ro - ses O He says I'll take an ar - - my And o - ver the fro - zen [realms?] I'll go and in spite of all the u - - niverse I will con - quer the bon-ny bunch of ro - ses O. O son ne - ver speak so ven - ture - some For Eng - land is the Hearts of Oak Eng - land and Ire - land and Scot - - land Their u - ni - ty has ne - ver been broke.

Source: Sung by Charles Smith, Coates. Collected by Cecil J. Sharp on April 10th 1911.

©Gloucestershire Traditions