

The Tailor and the Carrion Crow

♩ = 80

Verse

1. An old car' - on crow was a sit - ing on an oak,

Chorus Verse

Fal de lal a did - dle o - a - - di - - do, A watch - ing a tail - - or a -

Chorus. Verse

cut - ting out a coat, Fal de lal a did - dle o - a di - - do. An old car' - ron crow was a sit - ting on an oak A Watch - ing a tail - or a - rall.

cut - ting out a coat; Says the old car' - ron crow still a - - sit - ing on an oak,

Shout.

PORK Fal de lal a did - dle o - a - - di - - do.

2. The tailor says, Wife bring my arrow and my bow
That I may shoot this old car'ron crow (bis).
Says the old car'ron crow still a sitting on an oak,
Pork, Fal di lal, etc.
3. The tailor shot but missed his mark.
And shot his old sow right through the heart.
Says the old car'ron crow still a-sitting on an oak,
Pork, Fal di lal, etc.
4. Then what says the tailor I don't care a louse,
Will have black pudding, chitling or souse.
Says the old car'ron crow still a sitting on an oak,
Pork, Fal di lal, etc.

Source: Sung and noted by Mr. George Hill, blacksmith of the village of Dursley.

Collected by Miss C.M. Newhouse, Head Branch Teacher of the EFDSS and published in 1934.