

The Barley Mow

Here's good health to the half pint, good health to the bar - ley mow. ____

(Repeat phrase as required)

Here's good health to the half pint, good health to the bar-ley mow. Oh the half pint, li-ttle cup, je - - rry cup, drink up a li - - ttle drop more. Here's good health, ____ good health to the bar - - ley mow.

Cumulative song, adding a word each verse. Last verse is:

Here's good health to the company. Good health to the barley mow.

Here's good health to the company. Good health to the barley mow.

Oh (Now) the company, barmaid, landlady, landlord, brewer, barrel,

Gallon, half gallon, quart cup, pint cup, half pint, little cup, jerry cup,

Drink up a little drop more.

Here's good health, good health to the barley mow.

Source: Sung by Ernie Payne, Hawkesbury Upton. Collected by Gwilym Davies 1980.