

There is an Alehouse

The image shows two staves of musical notation in 6/8 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The first staff contains the lyrics: "There is a tav - ern in the town, And there my true ___ love sits him down ___". The second staff contains the lyrics: "And ta - kes an - oth - er lass on his knee, And nev - er ev - er thinks of me." The music consists of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests and ties.

Source: Mrs Packer, Winchcombe. Collected by Percy Grainger on 4th April 1908.

Notes: Mrs Packer sings a second verse, but the words are indistinct.
