

See the Robbers Coming Through

Briskly

The image shows two staves of musical notation in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody is written on a treble clef. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff contains the lyrics: 'See the rob - bers com - ing through, com - ing through, com - ing through'. The second staff contains the lyrics: 'See the rob - bers com - ing through, My fair la - - dy'. The music consists of quarter and eighth notes, with some rests.

2. What have the robbers done to you?
Done to you, done to you?
What have the robbers done to you?
My fair lady.

3. Stole my watch and stole my chain
Stole my chain, stole my chain.
Stole my watch and stole my chain
My fair lady.

4. Off to prison you shall go,
You shall go, you shall go.
Off to prison you shall go,
My fair lady.

5. Round the blanket 'tis too late
'Tis too late, 'tis too late.
Round the blanket 'tis too late
My fair lady.

Source: Miss J Howman, aged 72, Stow on the Wold, collected by Roy Palmer

© Gloucestershire Traditions