

Hark The Robbers.

Hark the rob - bers co - ming thro', co - ming thro', co - ming thro'

Hark the rob - bers co - ming thro', my fair la - - dy.

What's the robbers done to you?
Stole my watch and stole my chain.
How much money was it worth?
Half a guinea it was worth.
Half a guinea you won't have.
Off to prison you shall go.
Off to prison we shan't go.
Round the blanket 'tis too late.

Played in two lines advancing and retiring until last verses, when extremities of lines join hands and all dance round in a circle

Source: Sung by children at Stow-on-the-Wold on July 29th 1909. Collected by Cecil Sharp.

©Gloucestershire Traditions