

Jenny Jones

We've come to see Jen - ny Jones Jen - ny Jones Jen - ny Jones We've come to see Jen - - ny Jones how's she to - - day?

Mother speaks. answer. Washing. Hanging out the clothes. Starching. Isn't very well, Dead.

(Line standing still in original position)

What shall we dress her in Dress her in dress her in
What shall we dress her in
Now that she's dead

(Blue)

Blue is for sailors
Sailors sailors
Blue is for sailors
That will not do

Black is for mourning
Red is for soldiers
Green is for grasshoppers
Brown is for gypsies
Pink is for ladies
White is for dead people
(and that will do)

usual procession and scamper

Source: Children at Stanton School, 8th April 1909. Collected by Cecil Sharp no.2137.