

Young Lambs (Street Cry).

Young lambs to sell, young lambs to sell. They're four for a pen-ny six - teen for a groat, But fi-nest young lambs that e - ver were bought. If I'd as much mo-ney as I could tell, I'd ne - ver cry out "Young lambs to sell."

Source: Sung by Mr. Such, Cheltenham, on August 13th 1921. Collected by Cecil Sharp.

Notes: Cecil Sharp noted: Mr. Such is now the proprietor of one of the numerous boarding houses in Cheltenham. Born in London, he constantly in his youth heard this cry sung in the streets.

©Gloucestershire Traditions