

Green, Lived Upon the Green

1. There was a man and his name was Green. Green, lived up-on the green. And he had a son who'd ne-ver seen a wo-man. Now you all know what I mean.

2. Now there was another man and his name was Green
Green, lived upon the green
And he had a daughter who'd never seen a man,
But you all know what I mean.
3. Let's put them into bed together.
Green, lived upon the green.
Just to see what they would do to one another
But you all know what I mean.
4. She said, "What's that thing with his head so high?"
Green, lived upon the green.
"Oh, that's my horse with his head so high."
But you all know what I mean.
5. He said, "What's that thing that never runs dry?"
Green, lived upon the green.
"Well, that's my stream that never runs dry."
But you all know what I mean.
6. "Then we'll lead my horse up to your stream"
Green, lived upon the green.
"And if he don't drink, then we'll push the blighter in"
Now you all know what I mean.

Source: Sung by Bob Cross, Witcombe. Collected by Gwilym Davies 15 September 1977.