

Young Folk, Old Folk, Everybody Come

Refrain

1. Young folk, old folk, eve - - ry - bo - - dy come,
To our lit - - tle Sun - - day school and we will have some fun
Bring your toff - ee app - les and sit down up - on the floor, and you'll Hear some marv - 'lous stor - - ies that you nev - - er heard be - fore.

Verses - same tune:

1. Adam was the first man on this earth so we believe
One morning he was filleted and introduced to Eve
Although nobody showed him how, he soon found out the way
And that's the only reason we're all sitting here today.

Refrain

2. Esau was a fellow with a very hairy chest
His chest it was so hairy he'd no need to wear a vest
His Pa Pa tried to tell him all about the book of knowledge
But he gave it all away for a bowl of porridge.

Chorus

3. Pharoah had a daughter with a very wicked smile
She found the infant Moses in the rushes by the Nile
She took him home to her papa and he believed the tale
Which was just about as probable as Jonah and the whale.

Chorus

4. Moses was a leader of the Philistine and stock
With his old umbrella he drew water from the rock
All the tribes they gathered round and gave a hearty cheer
But they were disappointed when they found it wasn't beer.
