

The Rose in June

(a)

Sweet Kit - - ty she carr - - ied the sweet milk - - ing

Chorus

pail, Sweet Kit - ty she rest - ed on ev - - er - - y stile, So let it be ear__ ly late__ or soon, Then I will en - joy__ my sweet rose in June.

Variant
(a)

We'll harness our horses and go to the plough
It's darling Miss Kitty sits milking her cow.

We'll go and cut the red myrtle tree
And build up a bough for my love and for me.

Source: Henry Thomas at Chipping Sodbury on 3 April 1907. Collected by Cecil Sharp.
Notes: Sharp only collected the tune and 1 verse from Henry Thomas. Remaining verses from Thomas Lanchbury of Wick Rissington