

Green Gravel

Green gra - - vel, green gra - - vel, the grass is so (a)
green, and all you young la - dies are apt to be seen.
(a) Variant
all you young la - dies are apt to be seen.

Source: Sung by children from Condicote. Collected by Cecil Sharp on August 13th 1909.
Sharp collected the tune only. The words are from a similar version from Stow-on-the-Wold

©Gloucestershire Traditions