

George Ridler's Oven

The stones, the stones, the stones, the stones, the stones that built George Rid - ler's ov - en, they came from the Bla - ke - ney Quars. One thing of George Rid - lers
I must com - mend and that is a most not - - a - - ble thing My dog has got - ten such a trick to vi - - sit maids_ when they_ are sick and when they are sick and like_ to die Thi - ther goes my dog_ and I.

The image shows a musical score for the song 'George Ridler's Oven'. It consists of five staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 6/8 time. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first line of music has the lyrics 'The stones, the stones, the stones, the stones, the stones that built George'. The second line has 'Rid - ler's ov - en, they came from the Bla - ke - ney Quars. One thing of George Rid - lers'. The third line has 'I must com - mend and that is a most not - - a - - ble thing'. The fourth line has 'My dog has got - ten such a trick to vi - - sit maids_ when they_ are sick and'. The fifth line has 'when they are sick and like_ to die Thi - ther goes my dog_ and I.' The lyrics are written in a simple, sans-serif font, with hyphens used to indicate syllables across notes. The music is written in a standard staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#).

Source: Sung by Charlie Gardiner, Oakridge. Collector Cecil Sharp on 11 April 1911.

©Gloucestershire Traditions