

John Ridler's Oven

(George Ridler's Oven)

Introduction:

The stone the stone the stone That build - ed John Rid - ler's

Tune for verses:

ov - - en I had two sons two sons I had Dick was ten - or and Tom was bass Let ev - - ery man sing in his own place Let ev - - e - - ry man sing in his own place.

The stone, the stone, the stone
That builded John Ridler's oven

I had two sons, two sons I had
Dick was tenor and Tom was bass.
Let every man sing in his own place
Let every man sing in his own place.

I had but one sister her name it was Nell
A sweet pretty girl and I lov-ed her well.
I loved her well, the reason why
Because she loved my dog and I.

My dog and I we take a trip
To visit young maidens when they are sick.
When they are sick and like to die
Jiggle my joy my dog and I.

Source: William Hedges, Chipping Campden. Collected by Cecil Sharp 11 August 1909.