

Lumps of Plum Pudding

Source: Played by Thomas Denley at Sevenhampton at Sevenhampton, Coll. CJ Sharp no 2329

Notes: "Morris Jig".

#?: CJS was doubtful whether the C's were # or \flat in bars 4 & 6.

"Lumps of plum pudding and pieces of pie

My mother gave me for telling a lie (jumping so high)."

"Lumps of plum pudding" is a country term for bruises, while "pieces of pie" is rhyming slang for "a black eye".
