

The Barley Mow

Here's good luck to the half pint, good luck to the bar - ley mow. _____
(repeat phrase as required)

Here's good health to the half pint, good health to the bar-ley mow. For it's half pint, gill pot, drink up and have a drop more. Here's good health, _____ good health to the bar - ley mow.

Cumulative song, adding a phrase each verse. Last verse is:

Here's good luck to the soldier, the sailor, the airman, the company, the landlady, the landlord,
The hogsyud, the barrel, the half barrel, the gallon, the half gallon, quart pot, pint pot, half pint,
Gill pot, drink up and have a drop more.
Here's good health, good health to the barley mow.

Source: Sung by Tony Ballinger of Brockworth.

Collected by Gwilym Davies 14 April 1977 at Upton St Leonards.

Notes: The singer noted that the soldier, sailor, airman verses were a later addition.