

I Went to Market

I went to mar-ket to buy me a cock, The cock he ve-ry well pleased me, And e - ve - ry time I fed me old cock, I fed him all un - der a tree. _____ Now coc - ky went cock, cock, cock went cock a too too. _____ Here's luck to ev' - - ry poor man's cock and me own cock a too. _____

This is a cumulative song, in which the animal changes in each verse, and more and more bars are added after bar 8.

- | | |
|--------------------------|------------------------|
| 1. Hencluck cluck | 5. Sheep...baa baa |
| 2. Duck....quack quack | 6. Cow.....moo moo |
| 3. Goose...gang gang | 7. Horse...neigh neigh |
| 4. Pig.....grunt a grunt | 8. Wife....damn a damn |

Last verse

I went to mar-ket to buy me a wife, The wife she ve-ry well pleased me, And e - ve - ry time I fed me old wife, I fed her all un - der a tree. _____ Now Wife went damn a damn, Horse went neigh neigh, Cow went moo moo, Sheep went baa baa, Pig went grunt a grunt, Goose went gang gang, Duck went quack quack, Hen went cluck cluck, coc - ky went cock, cock, cock went cock a too too. _____ Here's luck to ev' - - ry poor man's cock and me own cock a too. _____

Source: Sung by Arthur Sallis, Dumbleton 1970. Collected by Peter Duddridge.