

Down in the Land of Greeno

(Repeat the next 4 bars as often as required)

Chorus

(Cumulative song - add an animal to each verse)

2. Come along o' me my pretty fair maid to view my father's sheep.
There's a sheep up there, a sheep down there, there's a sheep, there's a sheep, and that it is a sheep,
There's a gee up here, a gee down there, there's a gee, there's a gee, that is a gee, and it's etc
(Chorus)
3. ...cows...a moo...
4. ...pigs...a pig...
5. ...geese...a frank...
6. ...ducks...a quack...
7. ...hens...a clackle...

Source: Sung by Thomas Lanchbury of Wyck Rissington. Collected by Harry Albino, October 1928.

Notes: On his arrangement of this song, Albino notes that "frank is an old word for goose".
