

The Pretty Ploughboy

It's of a ? ? plough - ing boy was plough - ing of his land. His hor - ses ? ? ? be - neath the shade. It was down in yon - ders grove he went whist - ling to his plough, and he chanced for to meet a pre - tty maid.

Source: Sung by Thomas Bunting, Sherborne. Collected by James Madison Carpenter between 1927 and 1935.

©Gloucestershire Traditions