

Somersetshire

All good folks we all come down From a won-'er-ful place called Lon - 'on town
Where lords and lad-ies and dukes do ride And coach-men and foot-men all side by side
They nod-ded and bowed and quizzed to I, So I nod-ded and bowed and quizzed to they
So might - - y good - - temper - - ed they all did a - ppear Like the good - temper - ed folks from Zom - er - zet - shire Zom - er - zet - shire Zom - er - zet - shire Like the good - temper - ed folks in Zom - er - zet - shire.

Verse 5

Musical notation for Verse 5, consisting of two staves of music without lyrics.

2. I went to the Tower, and there, by gum!
There were chains for the legs and screws for the thumb.
And there all among other wonderful things
There were 'ooden 'osses and 'ooden kings.
"Do ye call these 'ere 'osses indeed?" says I,
"They ain't like the 'osses in Zomerzetshire,
Zomerzetshire, Zomerzetshire,
They ain't like the 'osses in Zomerzetshire!"

3. I thought I'd take a walk one day
And I walked and I walked and I lost my way.
I axed a man where e're I could be
"Why! In Lincoln's Inn Fields, you booby!" says he.
"Do you call these yer fields indeed?" says I
"They ain't like the fields in Zomerzetshire,
Zomerzetshire, Zomerzetshire,
They ain't like the fields in Zomerzetshire!"

4. The gardens! Forget 'em I never shall!
There was one of them called 'Zoological'
And there, 'stead of apples and quinces and pears
There were lions and tigers and monkeys and bears.
I took to my heels and fled for fear
I should never get back to Zomerzetshire,
Zomerzetshire, Zomerzetshire,
I should never get back to Zomerzetshire.

5. But back I got to my own good town
And away from Bridgwater I ne'er shall roam.
There may be boobies enough up there
But there bain't no boobies in Zomerzetshire,
Zomerzetshire, Zomerzetshire,
But there bain't no boobies in Zomerzetshire!
