

If I Were a Blackbird

1. I I were a young girl, my age was six - - teen, I _____ fell in love with some ra - kish young man, My friends _____ slight me be - cause he were poor, He's my ain bon - ny lad that I'll ne-ver see no more.

2. If I were a black - bird I'd whis - tle and sing, I'd fol - low the ship that my true love sails in, There on the top rig - ging I'd there build my nest, I would lay my brown hair on his li - ly white breast.

3. If I was a scho - lar I'd han - dle my pen, Some love let - ters to my love I'd send. And in case I should meet him I'd crown him with joy, And kiss the fair cheeks of my bold I - - rish boy.

4. I've searched in the high - land, I've searched eve - ry - - where, I've searched in the low - land, I couldn't find him there. He may cast his eye on in some fo - reign shore, He's me ain bon - ny lad that I'll ne-ver see no more.

3. If I was a scholar I'd handle my pen,
Some love letters to my love I'd send.
And in case I should meet him I'd crown him with joy,
And kiss the fair cheeks of my bold Irish boy.

4. I've searched in the highland, I've searched everywhere
I've searched in the lowland, I couldn't find him there.
He may cast his eye on in some foreign shore,
He's me ain bonny lad that I'll never see no more.

Source: Sung by Harry Brazil, Gloucester 1978. Collected by Gwilym Davies.

Notes: Verse 3 is sung to the tune of verse 2.

Verse 4 is sung to the tune of verse 1.

©Gloucestershire Traditions