

The Butcher's Frolic

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 6/8 time. The melody is simple and folk-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics are: 'It's of a lusty butcher as I have heard them say. He start - ed out for Leices - ter shire Up - - on a cer - tain day. Said he 'A fro - - lic I will have my for - tune for to try. I will go in to Leices - ster - shire some cat - - tle for to buy.'

It's of a lu - sty but - - cher as I have heard them say. He start - ed out for Leices - ter shire Up - - on a cer - tain day. Said he 'A fro - - lic I will have my for - tune for to try. I will go in to Leices - ster - shire some cat - - tle for to buy.'

Source: Sung by James Harding, Stow-on-the-Wold. Collector Cecil Sharp on 28 March 1907.

©Gloucestershire Traditions