

Greensleeves
[Some Say the Devil's Dead]

Some says the Devil's dead
The Devil's dead, the Devil's dead
Some says the Devil's dead
And buried in Cold Harbour

Some says he's rose again
Some says he's rose again
Some says he's rose again
And 'prenticed to a barber.

Sharp's noted "Sung to "Green Sleeves", which was played to "bacca pipes" or the Cushion Dance."

Source: Mr. Davies at Winchcombe. Collected by Cecil Sharp April 8th 1909.

Notes: Sharp notes the performer's name as Davis, but subsequent research has shown that it was Davies,
