

Taffy

Taff - y came out of the bord - ers of Wales Sol - i - - mi ka - - cu al - ka - nel - lo and stole a grey mare that was proved to be white To my bath - ry go, shath - ry go peth - ry go, feth - ry go nel - lo.

Taffy was taken before my lord judge,
For Taffy then thought it no grudge for to die.

You'll give my love to my father and mother,
And likewise to my sister and brother.

[Line missing]
And tell them I'm going to jail in a string.

Source: William Hedges, Chipping Camden. Collected by Cecil Sharp 14 August 1909.