2. Should your wishes incline
To beer, cider or wine
As you sit with your pipe at your ease
Their true flavour to find.
Always keep this in mind
Clean your taste with a bit of old cheese.

3. Like Gloucestershire voke ('Folk')
We'll sing and we'll joke
And be merry whenever we please
Drink the fleece and the pail
The plough and the flail
O'er a relish of best-making cheese.

4. Join hands, then, unite
With joy and delight
This happy occasion, we'll seize
And with amorous desire
We will drink, "May our squire
Live long and enjoy his own cheese."
